

“Ye Sarum Booke extends a hearty welcome to new Master Mr. John C. Myers, Gettysburg, '14, who will have charge of the Athletics for the coming year. Mr. Myers will fill the vacancy left by Mr. D. R. Leathers, who is now Supervisor of Athletics at Gettysburg College.”

“First football practice was called by Mr. Myers on Wednesday, October 4. The time before the first game was short and for this reason practice began the next day after the opening of school.”

“The first football game of the season was played at New Milford against Canterbury School on Saturday, October 14. They [Canterbury] were defeated by a score of 76-0. The game seemed to be a series of hundred yard dashes.”
